About the Conference

The Business Policy Conference is a great way for you and your employees to learn more about important public policy issues being debated in Maryland that impact your bottom line and our overall economy.

Highlights

Governor's Dinner

Governor Martin O'Malley is confirmed as our dinner speaker on Thursday, November 5. The Governor will discuss the state of Maryland's economy and his economic development priorities.

2010 General Assembly Forecast

On Friday morning, November 6, we'll preview the 2010 General Assembly session. Confirmed speakers include the Maryland General Assembly's presiding officers, Senate President Thomas V. Mike Miller and House Speaker Michael Busch, and minority leaders, Sen. Allan Kittleman and Del. Anthony O'Donnell.

Panel Discussions

Both days will feature a series of panel discussions with Maryland lawmakers and policy experts discussing critical business issues, including:

- Health care reform
- Renewable energy
- Workplace regulation
- Civil liability reform
- The economy
- And more

Accommodations

Overnight accommodations should be made directly with the Hyatt. The reservation deadline is October 14. Ask for the Maryland Chamber block of rooms for a discounted room rate of $196 single or double. Reservations should be made by calling (410) 901-1234 or 1-800-233-1234.
