About the Conference

The Business Policy Conference is a great way for you and your employees to learn more about important public policy issues being debated in Maryland that impact your bottom line and Maryland's overall economy.

Highlights

Gubernatorial Candidates

The conference will kickoff with a 5 p.m. networking reception on October 28, followed by dinner. Governor Martin O'Malley and former Governor Robert Ehrlich have been invited to be the dinner speakers.

General Assembly Preview

Preview the election and upcoming legislative session with the the Maryland General Assembly's presiding officers and minority leaders.

Maryland's Competitiveness

Where We Lead, How We Lag

Gary Keith, an economist with M&T Bank, will give a keynote on Maryland's economic competitiveness. Learn more about Maryland's economic development strengths and weaknesses, and what needs to be done to enhance Maryland's business climate and encourage job creation.

Panel Discussions

Both days will feature a series of panel discussions with Maryland lawmakers and policy experts discussing critical business issues, including the federal health care reform law, unemployment insurance, Maryland's budget deficit, and water quality.

Accommodations

Overnight accommodations should be made directly with the Gaylord National. The reservation deadline is October 6. Rooms are $189 plus tax, parking and resort fees. Ask for the Maryland Chamber block of rooms. Reservations should be made by calling (301) 965-4000.
